

I am totally against weakening Indiana's no-call laws. It has been a blessing not getting unwanted phone calls. If I want a banks service, I will make the first contact.